The Burning Bush

Moses was watching sheep in the hot and dry desert when suddenly he saw a strange sight. Flames of fire coming from a bush. Then he heard a voice, "Moses, Moses!" Moses was scared but he answered, "Here I am."

The voice returned, "Take off your shoes, the place you are standing is Holy ground." Moses kicked off his shoes, keeping his eye on the flaming bush.

"I am the God of your Fathers," the voice said. Moses was afraid to look at God. "I have heard my people crying in Egypt, My people are hurting and I have come to save them." God said. "Go!" said God. "I am sending you to Pharaoh to ask him to let my people go."

"Me?" said Moses who am I to lead your people?" He threw himself down on the ground but kept his eye on the burning bush. "I will be with you," said God.

Moses trusted God and was willing to what God asked. God gave Moses the words and the power to he needed to talk to the Pharaoh and to lead the people out of Egypt.

Scripture: Exodus 3:5-6

Then God said, "Don't come any closer. Take off your sandals. You are standing on holy ground. 'I am the God of your ancestors. I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.'"

2. How and when does God talk to you?
3. What do you think God's voice sounds like?
4. What are the challenges you have right now God can help with?

When you see the flame in a candle or in your fireplace, remember God speaking to Moses.
