The Lamb of God

John the Baptist was always talking about Jesus. The day after John baptized Jesus, he saw Jesus walking toward him on a busy road. "Look everyone, The Lamb of God." John said to all around him.

John told everyone about how God sent Jesus to earth. He let people know how Jesus was the Lamb of God, which meant He would save everyone from the bad things people do.

Then he shared what happened after Jesus was baptized, "A dove came down from heaven and God said, "This is my Son, who I love."

Day after day whenever John saw Jesus he told crowds Jesus was The Lamb of God.

As people heard what John said, they became followers of Jesus too.

Scripture: John 1:29-31

"The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him and said, "Look, the Lamb of God. He takes away the sins of the world! This is the one I was talking about when I said, "There is a man coming after me who is greater than I am, because he was living even before I was born."
