St. Luke's production of Broadway on Broadway was well received by audiences on Friday and Saturday, March 4 & 5. The talents of over 120 St. Luke's congregants were on display and delivered with joy to audiences. Songs from Show Boat, to Oklahoma, to Wicked, and to Guys and Dolls helped illustrate the diverse themes of life and left the performers and audience nostalgic and rejuvenated. Proceeds will benefit St. Luke's expanding Drama Ministry.

Were You There? A Life That Meets You Where You Are...

CELEBRATING LENT AND EASTER AT ST. LUKE'S

Who is Jesus? The question seems simple and straightforward. But the answer is complex and subtle because it concerns the present identity of a person who lived in the ever more distant past. Whereas the question, Who was Jesus?, requests information that would identify him in his own time and place by referring to his date and place of birth, parents, occupation, social status, and time of death, asking, "Who IS Jesus?" signals an interest in his current identity.

One of my favorite books about Jesus is by Leander E. Keck, Professor of Biblical Theology at the Yale Divinity School. Keck is a frequent scholar in the Disciple Bible Study Series, Jesus in the Gospels. In his book, Who is Jesus? History in Perfect Tense, he writes about the "is-ness" of the Jesus that was. Did you catch that distinction?

Keck remembers that the ancient Greeks used the perfect tense of a verb to distinguish the ongoing impact of a completed action from its occurrence in the past. "The door was opened" asserts that a past action caused the door to be no longer shut, though it might have been closed later. "The door is opened," on the other hand, asserts that it still remains open as the result of past action. So, to speak of history in perfect tense is to consider the ongoing-ness of something from the past, namely Jesus.

Our Lenten Series from Sunday, March 13 through Easter, April 24, Were You There? A Life that Meets You Where You Are..., is the invitation to explore the ongoing meaning—the perfect tense—of Jesus. What does it mean to be a follower, a disciple, of Jesus? How does he always seem to meet us in new and fresh ways in each season of our spiritual journey?

In listening to persons who are seeking the spiritual life, I have learned that many people are skeptical about "organized religion", but are compelled by what it means to follow Jesus! The exploration of that hunger leads people to communities of persons who share the friendship, the convictions, the transformation, the hope of the Christian life.

Our Spiritual Formation Team will offer a Lenten study based on the book, The Meaning of Jesus: Two Visions, by scholars (Marcus J. Borg and N.T. Wright) who write from opposite ends of the theological perspective.

The season of Epiphany ended with the family party of Fat Tuesday on March 8 with pancakes, games, and masquerading. Lent began with Ash Wednesday with the flashing of our Lenten hopes in the fire!

Join us in worship as we seek a holy Lent by exploring the life that meets us where we are.

Grace, —Rev. Janet

Mission Opportunities

Our mission to feed the homeless at St Paul's in Denver is in need of volunteers to keep the program running. It requires 2-3 hours of your time on any 3rd Sunday of the month (approx 7:30 am to 9:30 am). Groups, families, singles all are welcome. Sign up at the Mission Kiosk or call Marie Blue 303 683 2601 for details. Thanks!

Pictorial Directories have gone to press:

Thanks to all of you who were photographed for St. Luke's 2011 Pictorial Directory. We had a record number of participants, and this directory will be a great addition to your household and a useful resource for new members. The directories will be printed and ready for pick-up here at St. Luke's in April. We will make an announcement when the directories arrive. If you haven't yet received your free 5"x7" print, it will be with your directory when you pick it up. Please call Jill Wright at 303-927-6345 (jill@jillwright.com), or Kris Kinney at 303-346-2740 (krmk830@earthlink.net) if you have any questions.

Exploring The Meaning of Jesus

I am very excited to invite you all to join Rev. Tony Ashworth and me in exploring "The Meaning of Jesus". During Lent, beginning Wed. March 16 or Sat. March 19, we will be offering a book group to learn and share in conversation.

In "The Meaning of Jesus" N.T. Wright and Marcus Borg, leading Jesus scholars conservative and liberal respectively, each offer their perspective on some of the most important, exciting, and confusing issues of who Jesus is: his life, teachings, death, resurrection, and divinity.

Join Rev. Tony Wednesday nights at St. Luke's, 6:30-8:00pm starting March 16, or me Saturdays at The Egg & I (HR Pkwy and Towncenter), 7:00-8:30am as we read this book one chapter a week, one conversation at a time.

St. Luke's to Develop Relationship with a Local School

Do you want to find new ways to engage in serving our local community? The Missions Committee and other interested people are working with the Douglas County School District to develop a partnership between St. Luke's and a school in our local community. As you know, we already have a close relationship with the John Wesley School in Guatemala and it will be great to help a school close to home as well. Please contact Betsy Keyack, bkeyack@att.net if you would like to help start up this project.

Just Faith – Just “Get Out There” by Betsy Keyack

You may have seen the commercials for a cruise line that urges people to “get out there.” That is what we do as part of the educational process in our Just Faith classes. We embark on field trips called “Border Crossings” in order to have personal contact with people who are poor and marginalized in our local community. We have interacted with homeless people and their advocates; senior citizens in a Latino neighborhood; people with HIV; prisoners who are seeking to connect with God; day laborers who are vulnerable to exploitation; and women who are being empowered through their micro-businesses. We learn a great deal from these people about what God is calling us to do to live our faith.

One of our most powerful Border Crossings has been with Randle Loeb. Randle is a well-known and respected advocate for homeless people in Denver. He, himself, is homeless. Currently he lives at St. Paul UMC in Denver, serving as custodian. Randle is on the board of Colorado Coalition for the Homeless and is a member of numerous committees dealing with the issues of homeless people. Randle conducts educational walking tours in downtown Denver. From these tours, we have learned about the needs of senior citizens, education of homeless children; what it's like to be in a shelter like sardines on a cold night; affordable housing and gentrification of downtown neighborhoods; the Catholic Worker house model; the impact of drug addition and mental illness; the needs of homeless teenagers; health care for homeless people and the effect of city laws.

The HAAT Force, a community-wide group led by Peter Reif and others, to address homelessness in the south Denver suburbs, grew out of a Border Crossing in 2009. This winter, HAAT volunteers have distributed a large number of cold-weather hotel vouchers to homeless people in our local area. St. Luke's has been very supportive of this effort.

A key thing I learned from Randle and the Border Crossings is that in order to understand the needs in the community it is essential to go out and talk with people and listen to them. In order to take action, it is very effective to join with people who are interested in the same needs and are in fact already working to address those needs. Finally, it is okay to try different things in order to figure out how you want to make a contribution. According to scholar and educator Myles Horton, “We make the road by walking!”

100 People, 100 Trees

by Betsy Keyack It was a cool October day in 2010 with light rain falling. We were at the Sand Creek Greenway, a natural area being restored where the Stapleton airport runways used to be. There were 100 of us. We were people of all faiths, including Jews, Christians and Muslims. We gathered for prayer led by leaders of the different faith traditions. Then we set about our task - to nurture the environment by planting 100 trees. We wanted to show solidarity in our common value of caring for Creation. Our work was called the “Peace Forest.”

The Peace Forest project was initiated by Rev. Rebekah Simon-Peter of Bridgeworks, a non-profit that creates bridges of understanding among faith traditions in the context of the care of creation. (See <http://bridgeworksrepresents.org/default.aspx>). The effort was co-sponsored by the Denver-area Abrahamic Initiative and the non-profit Colorado Interfaith Power and Light (see <http://www.coloradoipl.org/>).

Lise Takayama and Edee Worth from St. Luke's were among the volunteers planting trees. In addition, Nancy Abbot, Lise Takayama and Betsy Keyack donated trees in memory of loved ones.

Another Peace Forest planting in the Denver area is planned for this year. Stay tuned for information if you would like to participate. In addition, Rebekah plans to start a Peace Forest in every state. What a wonderful way to express our values!

More from Les Anniversary Remembrances

It was Palm Sunday, March 26, 1961. The day began cloudy and threatening. Snow was forecast for the mountains, but I could care less. This was our wedding day! By evening Betty and I would be husband and wife!

Rev. Bob Stabenow, the Associate Minister at 1st Methodist Church had finished our prenuptial counseling meetings, the rehearsal had gone pretty much as expected, and it seemed there was nothing else for me to do in preparation.

Betty was getting ready at her parents home; I was with my family, fidgeting as much as anything else. "It seems," I foolishly thought, "that grooms don't have so much to do to prepare for the wedding."

I was dressed and would get a boutonniere later at the church. The Buick was serviced and washed, all my clothes were packed and ready, the books for school were in the back of the car, so I could be ready for classes that started the following week. I needed something to help burn off the nervous energy, so I began to worry.

Betty's brothers, Roger and Dick had been teasing me earlier about kidnapping her after the ceremony and holding her hostage for a while. "They wouldn't do that!" I thought, "Or would they?" The horrible possibility began to wear on my mind, unlikely as it was. "Don't worry, we'll get you and Betty to our Edsel after the wedding and you can use it on your honeymoon trip," said my father, "we will drive your Buick till you get back." The Edsel was barely a year old and was certainly more elegant than the '55 Buick, so I enthusiastically agreed to the plan.

The wedding began at about 2:00pm, after the church had been cleared following Sunday worship. I waited nervously in the small room just off the main church sanctuary with my best man, Jim, and the groomsmen, Billy and my brother, Jerry. Rev. Bob offered a short prayer and then, as the organ music began, he said, "Let's go," and then turning to me with a mischievous smile, continued, "Unless you want to back out..."

We started in... I walked to the altar area with the Rev. Bob and the groom's men and watched the back of the church for the arrival of the bride. The music swelled and the strains of the wedding march filled my brain. Betty and her dad appeared and I caught my breath.

There was the love of my life, looking more beautiful than I had ever seen before! She was looking at me and smiling as she walked down the aisle on her father's arm. I took a deep breath and fought back the tears that were trying to well up in my eyes. I still get a lump in my throat when I recall that moment!

In what seemed an instant, Betty was standing beside me; we had said our vows, we had exchanged rings and the minister had declared us husband and wife. We had knelt for a prayer at the end of the ceremony. When the prayer was over, we stood and kissed and then prepared to recess up the center aisle.

But as we stood up to begin our recession up the aisle, Betty discovered that she was standing on one of the underskirts of her wedding dress! She began to lean forward. I quickly caught her, steadied her and in split-second, she was able to free her foot. Just as a picture was being taken, we straightened up and then walked together up the aisle. I felt that disaster had been narrowly avoided.

Immediately following the ceremony, we proceeded to go downstairs to the fellowship hall in the church basement. There was the usual reception line, guest book, or eand refreshments. We had mints, nuts, cake, ice cream, coffee and tea. There were hugs and kisses and tears of joy; then the wedding presents were opened.

I kept my eyes on Betty's brothers, but nothing out of the ordinary seemed to be happening; it appeared that their threat had been just that, something to have fun with my mind.

Betty disappeared to change from her wedding dress into her "going away" outfit and my father slipped the keys to the Edsel into my pocket and I gave him my keys to the Buick. As the reception began to wind down and Betty and I went upstairs and out of the church and through a shower of rice. We quickly walked to the side of the church where the Edsel was parked, our bags discreetly hidden in the trunk, and got in. As we drove away, we saw the '55 Buick sitting in front of the church, elegantly decorated with crepe paper and soap for the windows. (Mom would tell us later that they received quite a response of honking and cheering as they drove the Buick to their home.)

Weddings have changed dramatically in several ways since 1961. In many ways, however, they remain the same. The elegance of the location and ceremony, the money spent, the special things that may be done by bride and groom, do not change the significance of this holy event nor affect the quality or longevity of the marriage. Commitment to the vows made and regular reinforcement that seeks none but good for your partner do make the difference.

Betty and I will be celebrating our 50th wedding anniversary on March 26. There will be an old-fashioned reception at the church that afternoon and you're invited to stop by, enjoy some mints and nuts and coffee or tea, and share memories. God bless us all! Rev. Les

A message from the Seasoned Voyagers

No, we are not well-seasoned with salt and pepper and other spices, nor are we full of recipes that we hand out to people. We are a group of older adults well versed in the habit of living and gaining wisdom. We want to share who we are with others. In return, we want you to share with us in fellowship and fun that can only be found at St. Luke's. As a side note, opportunities to participate will not be limited to St. Luke's members. Other people living in the surrounding communities will be welcomed into our Seasoned Voyagers group.

When does this all begin, you ask? How will I know if I want to attend and be part of this group? Well, we are currently in the planning stages and want to start in the fall with a get-acquainted meeting. However, as we put together this special and unique program, we invite you to start looking for members of our core team. They may have badges saying "Ask Me About Seasoned Voyagers" or they may just look like "Seasoned Voyagers." Just ask someone you see. If they don't know, maybe together you can find one of us hanging out somewhere.

If you want more info about what we are doing, please feel free to go to the St. Luke's Home Page, find the Quick Links button below the picture and scroll down to Email Lists. Click on that button, and it will take you to a page full of emails. Scroll down to the end of that page where you will find "Select a List." Click on that button and you will find Seasoned Voyagers. If all this sounds too complicated, just call Ann Roadarmel at 303-792-5110, or email me at alroadarmel@gmail.com for more information. We would love your ideas and thoughts about what programming you think might be needed at St. Luke's for our Seasoned Voyagers, and if you want to be on our core team we would be glad to have you. We meet on the 2nd and 4th Wednesdays at 1:00pm and finish before 2:30pm.

Tucker & Jake's Take

Woof! Woof! Ruff! Ruff! This is Tucker & Jake. We are on the Children's Beat, sniffing out and reporting all the latest news.

We are so excited about Twinderella! Over 40 kids tried out for the play and will be practicing every Wednesday between now and May 6. (We tried to convince Ms. Sharon to write parts for us, but I guess Cinderella & Bob didn't have dogs. Maybe next year...)

Also, SLY, Jr. (those fun 5th & 6th graders) had a great time celebrating Fat Tuesday on Tuesday, March 8. It was a fantastic celebration and now we are focusing on Lent with our next SLY, Jr. gathering on March 20 at 5:30pm. We will have a special guest who is an expert at ceramics and will show us lots of cool techniques to paint ceramic crosses. Only $10 a person and you get to keep your cross after it's been fired in a special oven. Maybe we can paint with our paws!

Tucker!! Did you hear?? Bunnies are coming! Easter Fun Day is the most FUN DAY of the year! Bunnies. Cotton Candy. Games. Easter Egg Hunts. The Bounce House. Can you believe it? In just a few weeks it's going to be here! Make sure you mark your calendar for Saturday, April 16, 10:00am to noon. The Easter Bunny is going to be ready and waiting. You have to be there!

But Jake.....as great as that is....it's not even the biggest news cooking. Something big is happening downstairs. Ms. Sharon and Ms. Melanie are stirring something up for this summer. It's been hard for me to concentrate, because they've been working in the kitchen, pulling out the pots and pans and mixing up a plan for kids to carry out God's Recipe. They're dancing. They're singing. They're putting on their aprons and getting ready for the "Shake it Up Café" Vacation Bible School! Morning VBS is from June 20-24 and evening VBS July 12-15 this year! With chef's hats and cookbooks, surrounded by checkered tablecloths and chalkboard menus, kids are going to mix up the ingredients for following God. Oh, I hope they are cooking up some yummy dog treats, too!

Online VBS enrollment begins April 11 online and closes May 27 for morning VBS and July 1 for evening VBS.

This is Tucker & Jake, wagging our tails and sending wet doggie kisses. We promise to stay on this developing "Shake it Up Café" story and promise to share more details next month!

Little School News: March Merriment!

The Leprechauns will be merry and about, causin' mischief and trickery! They seem to like to come into our rooms and turn things about and leave green footprints everywhere... and if you look hard enough there will be gold hiding in secret places! We love this month and just enjoy all the fun we are having.

ENROLLMENT is still available for our Tuesday and Thursday classes from 9:00am-1:00pm for 3's and for our 4 year-old's. PLEASE let your friends know that Little School still has room for their child! We would love to have them!

Little School will be closed for Spring Break March 21-25 so our teachers can have a respite with their families. We are looking forward to coming back refreshed and ready to have a fabulous April and May. Can you believe that we are getting so close to the end of school - 12 weeks! WOW!

Blessings, -Ms. Kay and Staff:-)

Golf Event 2011! Remember that feeling when you made the last payment on your vehicle and it was yours, free and clear? Even if you're personally buried in a 5 yr. loan you can share in that feeling at St. Luke's. Last August under the able leadership of Rich Krening we paid off the loan for the SLY bus!

Eight years ago a foresighted group of parents led by Dan Raap realized Old Blue (a 15 passenger airport van) wasn't the safest nor the most reliable transportation for our kids so they purchased the bus we have today. Fortunately credit was available. However how to pay it off? Cue the men in funny shorts.

A golf event was born (in case you're wondering, a church can't refer to it as a "tournament"). The event has been a great success. Not only has it provided us the necessary revenue, but it's provided a way to socialize with 90 of our closest parishioners. It's also been a great way for folks to expose friends and neighbors to our culture (most definitely "Invitational"). The first two years were played at Highlands Ranch GC, then three years at Fossil Trace GC where our own Jim Hajek is Head Professional, and finally returned to HRGC the last two years.

Typically $30 per entry goes towards the fund which by itself wouldn't have paid-off the loan in my lifetime. Hence sponsorships and silent auctions were necessary. Several of our member business persons have supported us year-in and year-out. Others have solicited items for silent auctions and to support the raffle. Finally there's an anonymous benefactor who has generously contributed. The staff at St. Luke's has also been supportive with golf jokes from the pulpit and clever videos and skits. Without the support of these people and those that have served on the committee over the years we wouldn't be where we are.

So what's next? Well we need to start planning for the next one. While the current bus has been a wonderful tool, a smaller bus that doesn't require a commercial driver's license would be useful. Rather than buy a new one now, we're going to build a little equity first. Typically we have around 90 participants of which 25% are women. Given that it's possible to field 144 players, the focus for this year is on participation rather than fundraising although sponsorships will remain available.

Fortunately Arrowhead GC (<http://www.arrowheadcolorado.com>) has offered us a very aggressive bid this year. This first-class venue has stunning views of natural rock formations throughout the course and is sure to be an attraction. We also hope to reduce the entry fees. The package includes complimentary non-alcoholic drinks and snacks on the carts as well as a buffet afterwards and a drink voucher. I think you'll find this to be a terrific value.

ST. LUKE'S UMC SPIRITUALITY AND WELLNESS WORKSHOP SERIES 2010/2011

relationships, St. Luke's is in a position to think more broadly about what we can do to promote and nurture the development of more Assets among our children and youth. Workshop participants broke into small groups to share specific ideas about how St. Luke's can develop greater capacity to help our children and youth build more Assets into their lives. In a large group closing Dr. Max summarized and concluded with the challenge that each and every member of St. Luke's can help create the Gracious Space necessary to nurture competent, caring, and responsible children and young people, by practicing the Assets Building approach. We have an opportunity to live out our congregational baptismal commitment "to be the sisters and brothers, uncles and aunts, grandfathers and grandmothers in Christ;" to help our children and youth "grow to full humanity, through living the teachings of Jesus Christ: Love, Acceptance, Justice, and Hope." It was an evening full of Gracious Space.

If you were unable to attend the Building in Gracious Space: Assets Building – A Strength Based (and Gracious) Approach to Helping Children and Youth Thrive workshop, Ken Fong videotaped the large group sessions (Thank you Ken), and you can contact Rev. Sallie to arrange to view the video.

The Spirituality and Wellness Team plans to email a follow-up survey to all participants who provided email addresses. We invite you to give us your feedback about the Assets Building workshop and provide your ideas for future Spirituality and Wellness workshops. In addition, the survey will investigate interest in a deeper exploration of the Assets Building approach, as well as what that might look like as a St. Luke's education activity. We invite your participation in planning these activities.

Great Turnout for 3rd Wellness Workshop

Sunday Feb. 20 at St. Luke's Dr. Dana Max, Clinical Psychologist specializing in Youth and Families, engaged more than 65 participants in learning about the Assets Building approach for nurturing competent, caring, and responsible children and youth. Initiated by the Search Institute in 1995, and based on research among 250,000 American youth grades 6-12, the Assets Building approach has defined 40 Assets that all young people need to develop in order to navigate successfully through childhood and adolescence. The 40 Assets incorporate both External Assets (for example, family support, a caring neighborhood, adult role models, creative activities, a religious community) and Internal Assets (for example, achievement motivation, integrity, planning and decision making, self-esteem). Many children and youth have fewer than half of these Assets, leaving them significantly at risk for engaging in risk-taking behaviors, including drug and alcohol abuse, depression/suicide, sexual activity, violence, and poor performance in school.

The Boulder Philharmonic Orchestra Delights St. Luke's

On February 20th, the Boulder Philharmonic with special guest soloist Richard Stoltzman, came to town and filled the Sanctuary with fun, exciting and beautiful music. We were very grateful they joined us as part of our benefit concert series this year.

Although the final numbers have not been tallied yet, proceeds from this concert will go towards building materials for the adobe homes for the widows of Lamo, scholarships for the children at the John Wesley School and instruments for their new music program at the school. Because everything went so well, both St. Luke's and the Boulder Phil decided to book the next concert on February 26, 2012! Mark your calendars now! If you were one of the 350 that came, you know how great they were. If you weren't able to come, you don't want to miss the chance to hear this wonderful professional orchestra perform. As one of our members put it, "Convenient, affordable, and fabulous!"

Welcome Jenna Wilcox!

We are pleased to announce that Jenna Wilcox has come aboard at St. Luke's in the newly created position of Director of Drama Ministry!

As of March 1, Jenna Wilcox joined the St. Luke's staff as the Director of Drama Ministry as part of the Music and Arts Ministries team. She brings a unique wealth of knowledge of theater and a passion for community building through the arts. Jenna is a Colorado native and has been active in churches from her early youth. From holding babies in the nursery when her mom volunteered for Sunday service to teaching 3rd grade Sunday School, Jenna has long been exploring her heart and calling for ministry. As a young person she sang in every choir she could and acted on stage at every opportunity. Her experience in liturgical drama and choral music lead her to pursue a degree in Musical Theater from Friends University in Wichita, Kansas. It was there that she discovered her love of directing.

Upon arrival at St. Luke's Jenna and her husband, Bret, fell in love with the community. She and Bret helped paint the set for The Music Man before attending a service and have participated in every Wesley Players production since. We are delighted and blessed that they, along with their adorable son, Coley, have made the St. Luke's community their spiritual home. Welcome Jenna! Break a leg!

Jazz at St. Luke's on April 10!

On April 10 at 7:30pm, Message Serving the Word will join St. Luke's for a benefit concert. Message Serving the Word is a jazz trio from Phoenix, AZ that promotes a Christian message through jazz music. They are very entertaining and fun to listen to. In addition, the Ministers of Swing and the St. Luke's Youth Jazz Orchestra will also perform for the concert. All are invited. Suggested donation at the door.

Registration for the Performing Arts Academy is open!

CHRIS's CORNER

Preparing for Summer Missions

Yes, you are smack in the middle of the longest stretch of school. You are probably dying for spring break to get here and summer feels like a long way away! But fear not, summer is closer than you think – and so are the mission trips!

This year, the Sr. High (graduated 9-12 graders) will work with MoTown Missions in Detroit doing Urban Renewal projects. This will be a very interesting trip with plenty of cultural opportunities around Detroit and the work will take us into some of the most impoverished areas of the city. This trip will cost $475 per participant, and you need to get registered by March 27. There are 40 spots available for youth. To register, pick up a registration packet at church, or go to stlukeshr.com/sly and download your own. The registration packet is a 2-page application plus 2 recommendation forms. A $200 deposit in addition to these forms saves your spot on the trip. Get your forms in ASAP to get your spot!

The Jr. High trip details are still being finalized, but those youth who are graduated 6-8 grade interested in this trip should save July 5-10. Historically, we keep the Jr. High trip shorter, cheaper, and closer to home than the Sr. High experience. This trip will involve at least 3 days of volunteer work and a bit of travel. The Jr High Mission experience is designed as a 'getting your feet wet' trip, that will expose youth to volunteer and service in a safe, fun, and meaningful way.

For Parents/Adults – These trips only happen because adults from St. Luke's make time in their busy schedules to support these trips with their physical presence. The adults who have traveled with us on mission experiences in the past have called them 'surprisingly meaningful' 'wonderful' and 'eye-opening'. Please prayerfully consider if you have the time and energy to be an adult sponsor on a mission experience this summer. If you would like more information, or talk over experiences in person, please contact me! - chris@stlukeshr.com or my cell 303-260-8221.

A New Giving Opportunity For Non-Weekly Givers. Those who give their offering to St Luke's each week have the opportunity to enjoy the experience of dedicating their giving at the altar in worship every Sunday. Yet, those who elect to give by some method other than placing their offering in the offering plate on Sunday morning don't get to enjoy the same experience. We want everyone to have the opportunity to participate in the Sunday offering and serve as a role model for generosity and stewardship with our children and others around us.

St Luke's United Methodist Church

Non-Weekly Offering

"Bless me, Lord, with the joy of generosity!"

AN OFFERING TO MY CHURCH

In lieu of a weekly offering, this card represents my/our faithful giving to the Lord via another method such as non-weekly giving, Electronic Fund Transfer, Credit Card, Stock Transfer, etc.

Jesus said, "For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also." -Matthew 6:21

For more information about other methods of giving such as Electronic Fund Transfer or Credit Card giving please contact the Finance Department.

We're proud to announce a new program that will allow everyone to participate in the Sunday offering. We have a new laminated card that you can place in the offering plate each Sunday signifying that you are a non-weekly giver who has elected to give your offering by using our electronic transfer program, transferring stocks, or writing checks monthly, quarterly, or annually rather than placing your offering in the offering plate on a weekly basis.

This new card is about the size of an offering envelope and we're calling it the "Non-Weekly Offering Card." The cards may be found in the Information Display in the foyer or at the Get-Connected Table. Simply pick up one of the cards as you enter the Sanctuary, place it in the offering plate and know that your gifts will be dedicated as an act of worship.

We have a wonderful St Luke's family who supports St Luke's with their generosity and strong stewardship commitments. This little card is just another way to bind us together as a church family and bring enrichment to all of us as we dedicate our tithes and offerings on Sunday. Thank you to sister congregations who have graciously shared this practice with our Finance leaders.

Pick and Choose Your Method Of Giving to SLUMC. We have many ways for you to make your giving to SLUMC easy and convenient. You may want to consider one of these convenient methods for your contributions.

In addition to cash and checks, we offer online credit card transactions, stock transfers and scheduled automatic withdrawals from checking or credit card accounts. The following is a general summary:

- 1. General Fund and Capital Campaign: All methods.
- 2. Grocery Cards: Cash, check, scheduled automatic withdrawal from checking accounts.
- 3. Special Events: Depending on the type of event may include cash, check, PayPal and online credit card transactions. The method(s) available at each event will be announced at the time of the event and are at the discretion of the sponsor.
- 4. Plus: We're anxious to consider any reasonable method you know about that we haven't adopted.

An excerpt from a letter from Inter-Faith Community Services to St. Luke's

Dec. 27, 2010: Thank you so much for being a sponsor for our Adopt-A-Family Program this holiday season. Because of the great generosity we witnessed, more than 2,500 children, parents and seniors were taken care of through the program! This year we had more families and seniors in need, and donations were down drastically. I was worried about how we were going to pull this off. Once again this amazing community came through to help those who are less fortunate. Thank you so much for making our motto of "Neighbors Helping Neighbors" ring so true this holiday season!!

DenUM – 30 Years of Supporting Our Denver Community

Denver Urban Ministries (DenUM) is celebrating their 30 Year Anniversary. DenUM's mission is to serve the immediate and long-term needs of the most vulnerable in our community, looking beyond crisis to a society of equality, justice, and compassion. If you are looking for an opportunity to support the less fortunate within our Denver community, then DenUM is a great option. You can help through donations of food, money, and volunteering.

The greatest food needs consist of soup, pasta, beans, cereal, and peanut butter. All of these items can be dropped in the large bins within the donation closet in the church entry. The top volunteer needs include Food Intake Volunteer, ID Clinic Volunteer, and Job Services Receptionist. Special events that could use your support are:

VIP Program – a pilot to engage volunteers in a meaningful way if they can't commit to a regular schedule at DenUM.

Mother's Day Diaper Drive – a new project being launched as a spring activity to support families with young children and as an alternative to just food donations.

Hope Benefit Silent Auction – May 4 6:00-8:00pm – an opportunity to learn more about DenUM client stories while supporting the agency financially.

To learn more about DenUM and these specific opportunities, please contact: Amanda Baker at 303-350-5066 or amanda@denum.org or Brad Bonjean at 720-217-9936 or bonjeans@hotmail.com.
